

IS802: ESF #2 – Communications
Final Exam

1. Emergency Support Function (ESF) #2 – Communications supports the restoration of the communications infrastructure, facilitates the recovery of systems and applications from cyber attacks, and coordinates Federal communications support to response efforts during incidents requiring a coordinated Federal response.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. All of the following statements describe ESF #2 activities EXCEPT FOR:
 - a. Identifying communications assets that may be employed to support the incident area.
 - b. Assessing anticipated and actual damage in the incident area in conjunction with industry partners.
 - c. Assigning representatives to the National Response Coordination Center (NRCC), providing for 24-hour coverage if required.
 - d. Directing local and private-sector crews to expedite repair downed communications lines in the incident area.
3. In the event of a terrorist attack against the communications infrastructure, ESF #2 would take the lead in criminal investigations.
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. Which ESF #2 support agency might provide radio communications systems to support firefighters, law enforcement officers, and incident response operations?
 - a. Department of Commerce
 - b. Department of the Interior
 - c. Department of Defense
 - d. Federal Communications Commission
5. The National Communications System (NCS) and the National Cyber Security Division (NCSD) work closely to coordinate the ESF #2 response to cyber incidents.
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. Within the Department of Homeland Security, which organization provides situational awareness, cross-sector coordination, and prioritized recommendations regarding critical infrastructures and key resources.
 - a. National Cyber Security Division
 - b. Federal Emergency Management Agency
 - c. DHS Wireless Services
 - d. Office of Infrastructure Protection

IS802: ESF #2 – Communications
Final Exam

7. Which agency provides policy and procedural guidance concerning the control and allocation of radio frequency assignments?
 - a. Department of the Interior
 - b. Department of Commerce
 - c. Federal Communications Commission
 - d. General Services Administration
8. Which agency provides regionally based personnel, who often deliver the initial ESF #2 field response
 - a. General Services Administration
 - b. Department of Commerce
 - c. Department of Agriculture
 - d. Department of Defense
9. One of the roles of the Joint Telecommunications Resources Board is to resolve certain conflicts regarding national security and emergency preparedness communications priorities and resources.
 - a. True
 - b. False
10. The Federal Communications Commission provides spectrum management support and coordination in conjunction with other support agencies.
 - a. True
 - b. False